

2024 Summer Reading List for Students Entering the 6th, 7th and 8th Grades

Be sure to take time during your summer vacation to read and enjoy some good books. A minimum of three is recommended. Below are the two required titles for each grade. You must bring the two novels with you in September. You should also read another book of your choice, not including graphic novels.

6th:

The Westing Game by Ellen Raskin

Making Bombs for Hitler by Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch

7th:

The False Prince by Jennifer A. Nielsen

A Night Divided by Jennifer A. Nielsen

8th:

The Giver by Lois Lowry

The Boy in the Striped Pajamas by John Boyne

Here are a few suggestions for additional titles to read over the summer...

Harry Potter (any book in this series)

by J. K. Rowling

Ungifted or Supergifted or Restart

by Gordon Korman

The War Below or Stolen Girl or Trapped in Hitler's Web or Traitors Among Us

by Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch

Percy Jackson & the Olympians or Kane Chronicles or Heroes of Olympus or Magnus Chase (any in series)

by Rick Riordan

Milkweed or Stargirl

by Jerry Spinelli

Refugee or Two Degrees or Allies or Ground Zero or Grenade

by Alan Gratz

The Scourge or Resistance or Rescue or Words on Fire or Iceberg

by Jennifer A. Nielsen

The Ghost of Crutchfield Hall (any by this author)

by Mary Downing Hahn